Sydney Hockey President's Report 2020

The 2020 season was certainly one that we all will look back on in the future and wonder about how it all happened. Amid unprecedented uncertainty, a world wide pandemic, social distancing and COVID procedures and rules changing almost daily, we managed to have a hockey season that we thought would never eventuate. The season itself ran exceptionally smoothly, albeit without spectators, handshakes, dugouts and many other traditional hockey and sporting things. The good grace and cooperation of the hockey community made things much easier to organise and the season outcomes were far better than anyone could have ever envisaged.

Like all things it seems, there were plenty of learnings and positive things to come from COVID hockey. These things will be discussed at club and Board level, but there are opportunities that perhaps as a sport we haven't understood as fully as we do now. The standout thing for me has been the success of the live streaming of regular season games, not just the grand finals. The Board has begun preliminary discussions with our provider over ways to incorporate this into the 2021 season. The competition structure this season worked very well and caters effectively for the majority of clubs. There will always be some discontent with gradings, draws and structures, however anything that makes every person or club a hundred percent happy in any sporting code an unattainable goal.

To stage such a season as the one we have just had required enormous organisation and cooperation from many people, clubs, government agencies, health experts etc. etc. I offer everyone involved in hockey this year at any level my deepest thanks and respect. Our clubs this year have endured a season like no other and I am in awe of the resilience and dedication shown. The extra layers of administration and procedures brought on by COVID could easily have led people to say it's all too hard, but the strong core of volunteers enabled QR code logins, extra signage and COVID marshals to appear at games and training sessions, to make things run smoothly. We are all indebted to them for our season.

At the Sydney Hockey level, our Board worked tirelessly to make the season happen and I thank them personally and on the behalf of all hockey players in Sydney. Our Executive Officer, Peter Hayes surpassed his regular high standards during the season, dealing effectively with almost daily changes and communicating clearly to all clubs and players. To Bruce Cook, Robbie Sutton, the Officiating Committee and all umpires and technical officials, a fantastic job of over 98% coverage of games across a season such as this was exceptional. Although the thanks sometimes aren't as obvious and forthcoming during a game, the players are grateful for all your efforts and commitment throughout the year.

After not just surviving, but thriving during the season, the future continues to be bright for hockey in Sydney. I encourage everyone to participate again in 2021, invite friends and family to join in and help grow our wonderful game. I would like to wish everyone a safe and happy Christmas season and look forward to a new season in 2021.

Best wishes,

President
