7. OFFICIATING REPORT

This current weekend saw Round 6 of the 2022 Sydney Hockey being conducted. As in previous weeks COVID has been a determinate in Official's availability also late changes to the draw by the Clubs is presenting a challenge.

Last Saturday at Pennant Hills was a classic:

- Friday morning the PL1 game was deferred by mutual agreement between Northern Districts and Sydney University as the students had an examination,
- Friday morning Technical Official confirmed he had COVID (not replaced),
- 10:00 AM Cooper Alderton the appointed PL1 & 2 Umpire advised he was sick and not be available to Umpire.
- 11:00 replacement Umpire identified for PL1 from SL6 game on PH2, and
- 11:15 Replacement umpire identified for SL6.

Despite other activities the Officiating effectiveness was 93% and 97% as follows:

OFFICIATING EFFECTIVENESS

Serial	Round	Total Appointments	Effectiveness	Umpire	Coaches	TO/Judge	Club	SH Umpires
1	Round 1	110	2	12	6	88		94%
2	Round 2	110	1	17	7	89		93%
3	Round 3	86	0	14	6	66		93%
4	Round 4	113	1	17	3	92		97%
5	Round 5	118	4	18	7	89		94%

Since the last start of the season 12 new members have been recruited to Sydney Hockey officiating. However, Club contributions of Officials is at varying levels. Some Clubs have the required one team/one official ratio such as Northern Districts and Wests whilst others contribute no officials to Sydney Hockey Officiating. This imbalance is being pointed out to the Clubs and they have been requested to address the imbalance.

All 2022 pre-season Official's expenses have been paid and Rounds 1 to 5 (until 1 May 22) are being processed. The next expense run will be paid at the end of May.

In relation to the Officials walking out apparel from O'Neill's all items have now been received:

- Back Pack,
- Hat,
- Officials shirt,
- TO Shirt,
- Jacket, and
- The Ball Person T shirts.

The Official's Walking Out Apparel looks great and has been distributed as it arrives. As at this evening 31 of 64 orders have been fully satisfied with only seven Officials not receiving anything to date.
